DOVE'S MILL.

For a few days the threshing machine has attracted the farmers' immediate attention. Wheat is a small percent better than was generally expected. Corn will go beyond the average crop if not molested by any further hindrance. George and John Walker left on the 18th for southern Virginia. Rev. Cross commenced a revival meeting at Speedwell on the 20th. Much and lasting good is expected by all here and in the close. If times are hard some of our young people have collected about enough courage to try the realities of a matrimonial life. Rev. Bass, a minister of the Christian Church, baptised four persons at Union last Monday. Quite a number of our citizens attend the encampment at Erwin, and report the time not so hilarious as was fancied by the mass of the people. W. R. Peoples having collected quite an amount of fine timber, will in a few days open up a match factory. "Where the Devil takes him he sends a servant," he came in person or sent one of his agents and took one of the lamps at Greenwood a few weeks ago. If the gentleman would return said lamp he would house the live stock of the Embreeville Iron Company; the horses and mules went at low prices.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

MAKES THEM WELL.

One True Medicine for Lost Nervous Strength.

There is one true specific for diseases arising from a debilitated nervous system, and that is the Paine's Celery Compound so generally prescribed by physicians. It is probably the most remarkable remedy that the scientific research of this country has produced.

Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M.D., L.L.D., of Dartmouth College, first prescribed what is now known the world over as Paine's Celery Compound, a positive cure for dyspepsia, biliousness, liver complaint, neuralgia, rheumatism and kidney troubles. For the latter, Paine's Celery Compound has succeeded again and again where everything else has failed.

Picnic at Unaka School House.

There will be a picnic at Unaka School House, in the Fifth District, on Saturday, August 25. All are cordially invited to attend, and a pleasant time is assured to all well disposed persons.

Death of Charles Ross.

C. M. Ross died of consumption at his father's home, on the farm of J. E. Harris, deceased, a few miles south of this place Sunday night. He had been gradually declining in health for several months.

The deceased was about twenty years of age. He was the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. David Ross, who moved from Greene to Washington County a few years ago. G. A. Ross, a brother of the deceased, resides in Johnson City.

There are many people in upper East Tennessee who will bear with deep regret the early death of this young man. He was a constant student and had an exceptionally brilliant intellect.

At a very early age he developed a taste for literary work, and at his death had acquired great proficiency in the art of composition. He had contributed to Puck and Judge and to the Detroit Free Press, and his stories and sketches were always new. He had a keen sense of the humorous, and his thought, always satirical, took a pleasant and agreeable turn. Some of his happiest contributions were in verse. He contributed liberally to the Tennessee Twinkings, a paper which was published by his brother in Johnson City, and many of his sketches and humorous sayings went the rounds of the press.

He was a young man of high Christian principle, and had he lived he would in all probability have become noted as a story writer and sketch artist.

He was being educated at Washington College, and had made rapid advancement in the science and language.

OBITUARY.

Again has God sent death, his frequent messenger, to call one of his children home.

On August 17, 1894, Mrs. Eliza H. Deakins closed this life. The world says that she is dead; Christ says she sleeps, and we say she has gone home. She was born July 9, 1826, making her at the time of her death sixty eight years, one month and nine days of age.

Her maiden name was Eliza H. Allison. She was the widow of James Deakins, having lived in widowhood for some twenty years; during this time she had the care of a growing family of two sons and four daughters, all of whom survive her.

In early life she became a member of the Presbyterian Church of Johnson City, Tennessee; living in that connection until called up higher. Home was the sphere of her activity, and this place she filled most faithfully.

Woman's highest happiness here is in the life which she knides in the souls of her children. She may be often weary or discouraged, but the time will come when she shall look upon her pilgrimage below, and find it in God's book, that, as he trod the path aright, power from her very shadow stole, for such is the mysterious might God grants the faithful soul.

Deafness Can not be Cured

by local applications as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation is taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars: free.

Report of Teachers' Normal.

The regular work of the Teachers' Normal which opened in Jonesboro, July 16, closed Thursday, July 26, after a very interesting, enjoyable and profitable session of nine days. Friday and Saturday following were devoted to that less attractive part of normals, especially to teachers—the examinations.

The following subjects were treated as follows during the institute:

Primary Work, one of the highest, most fascinating and beautiful works in the world, was very ably and attractively presented throughout the normal. It was in charge of Prof. A. J. Andes, Principal of the Primary Department in Bell House School of Knoxville. A certain amount of time being given to this important subject almost every day. All the Primary Branches to be taught received their fair share of attention, and good modern methods of teaching them were clearly given. Object teaching in this work was considerably advanced, and we think wisely so, and that it would be well if such was used much more in our country than perhaps it is. The primary work certainly demands our most careful attention, for "as the twig is bent the tree is inclined."

School Law, Language Lessons, Psychology, Rhetoric, Penmanship, Vocal Music and the broad deep subject of teaching were all well treated by Prof. Andes. Geology, State History, Civil Government, Physiology, Algebra, Bookkeeping, Spelling, Advanced Geography, Theory and Practice, Requisites of Successful Teaching, Grammar and Composition and Written Arithmetic were excellently presented by Prof. J. W. Trotter, of the Hampton and Sydney School of Knoxville. We especially liked the lectures by him on Advanced Reading, Theory and Practice and Requisites of Successful Teaching, and we think we never heard anything so good, nor ever read anything better on these subjects than they were. Prof. Trotter made Reading quite an important, if not the most important, branch to be taught and studied. Agriculture was treated in a very interesting manner by Prof. R. H. Freeland, of Johnson City, whom we were glad to have with us a few days. Prof. Freeland also gave us some excellent points on United States History while present. Geometry was made very interesting and of much importance to us by Prof. D. A. Bolton, of Grant University, of Athens, Tennessee, who, to our pleasure, spent a short time with us. These most interesting and important educational institutions were very successfully discussed all through the normal.

We think this was at least one of the best institutes we ever attended in this county. Prof. Watts faithfully and earnestly worked to make it a success. All the instructions given were undoubtedly excellent. Prof. Trotter and Andes are teachers of considerable experience and had received special training as normal teachers previous to our normal, and with their additional industry and fidelity in their work as instructors, and with their apparent love for it, they could not fail to give us much excellent instruction, and all those who assisted them did so quite well. So many good and useful things for teachers were said during the institute that we think it certainly would have been a blessing if the teachers had all been skilled in and had freely used stenography as they listened day after day. The teachers were as attentive and heartily co-operative, in every way, it seemed to us, as we ever saw them, if not more so. Some one spoke not long since as though they thought a normal might very appropriately be called a windmill. Of course the meaning of this is easily understood. Our normal just closed did not impress as being at all like this, for it seemed to be rather unusually quiet yet very beneficial; and any winds that blew about it in it were, we thought, soft and gentle, and full of flying gold dust. The syllabuses sent out and used were certainly very helpful.

One special thing wisely done during the institution was the organization of a Teachers' Library Association.

On Thursday evening, July 26, teachers gave a very pleasant literary entertainment assisted by E. D. Duncan, of Johnson City. The principal features in it were two excellent and appropriate papers by Prof. Trotter and Miss M. Rankin, of Washington College, and two recitations, charmingly rendered by Mr. Duncan.

This normal impressed us as being an unusually social one.

One hundred and fourteen regular and visiting teachers were enrolled, and quite a large number of visitors were in—sometimes over a hundred in one day were present.

Lively music was furnished nearly all through the institute; and beautiful and fragrant flowers were brought quite often to perfume and brighten our room.

Possibly we may seem to have been somewhat flattered or too eulogistic in some of our remarks in this report; but we have not indeed meant to be so in the least.

The names of the teachers which have not yet been published are as follows:

W. F. Huffine, T. C. Garst, W. S.

Bowman, H. J. Depew, John F. Vines, D. M. Slonaker, E. L. Anderson, J. W. Barron, W. P. Crouch, Prof. C. H. Armentrout, Prof. Jno. Lampton, Prof. Jas. T. Cooley, Misses Ida Anderson, Mollie Story, Mollie F. Hale, Rowena Bowers, Belle Gold, Louise Persinger, Helen Patterson, Flora Thompson, Nora Dulaney, Ella Hartwell, Bessie Hale, Annie L. And now all the work and enjoyment of this normal is over. The echoes of the many good words then spoken have days since died away; the social pleasure of the occasion is all past, but the practical results are mainly yet to come and pleasant remembrances remain, and sincerely do we hope that much good will follow this institution; that in the future the standard of education in our county will be raised higher and higher, the diffusion of knowledge become wider and wider; that the teachers who attended this Normal will have more satisfaction, success and enjoyment in their noble work, and that he who is all wisdom and understanding will be honored in it all.

ANNE BRADSHAW, Sec., Aug. 13, 1894.

MAY DAY.

As our little boat has been safely harbored once more, we come again with our bucket of love. A good number of our people went up to Erwin the 16 inst., to take in the reunion; all report a nice as well as an interesting time. Mrs. D. M. Berry spent a few days quite recently with her father up in Union. Mrs. J. H. Moore was the guest of Grandma Berry one day last week. Miss Maud Moody, a charming young lady of Mosley Creek, has been spending a short time with Misses Florence and Naomi Moore near here. Amanda Eastep went up to Shell Creek last week to visit home folks, where she will spend a few of the sultry days. Alice Moore, (colored) of Knoxville, is visiting her aunt, Phoebe Cox, of this place. The summer school which has been taught by Miss May Kilby, at Mayberry, closed Wednesday. Miss May has proved herself worthy of the place which she has so nobly filled and we predict for her a bright future. J. C. Berry will go down to Timber Ridge, Greene County, the 23d, to attend the Holston Presbytery. The Riverside Debating Society has been moved from the Taylor school house to Bethesda; it will convene on each Wednesday night; everybody is invited to come. The Haynes and Brown watermelon firm shipped their first load of melons to Erwin last Thursday. Miss Mary Haynes, who has been visiting home folks for the past week, returned to Johnson City Saturday, where she is staying with S. H. Pounder. Quite a number of our citizens went up to J. D. Brown's meeting last Monday that they might view his remains ere he starts over the hill. Embree Jones, of February, was paying his respects to one of our young ladies a few days since. Come again Embree, as your genial face is always welcomed by the fair sex. Rev. F. E. Dobson and sister, Miss May, an accomplished young lady of Broylesville, spent Thursday with Miss Mattie Brown down on the river. Messrs. Jarrett and Wilds gave James Haynes a call a few nights since on their way home from where they have been attending the reunion near Erwin. John Walters, a poor laboring man, some time since had his house and almost every thing in it consumed by fire. Supposed to have caught from the stove. A man by the name of Carter and Floyd Berry, who have been digging a well for Mrs. W. E. Kilby, came very near losing their lives a few days since by being struck with gas on entering the well. Our ex-district sheriff, Jeff Fields, was around a short time since on a collecting mission. Jeff is one of the best collectors the Fourth district has ever had and we are certainly sorry to give him over, but perhaps some will see their error and change before 1896. Will Swingle was down from Johnson City Monday looking after the interest of his farm. Geo. Sliger, (colored) has been very low with fever; but by the assistance of Dr. Jones he is convalescing slowly. Louis, son of C. H. Markwood, who is staying at Clark's Springs, was up on the river a few days last week. Rev. Jas. Bass, of Burnsville, N. C., conducted a few days meeting at Bethesda last week. E. S. Brown was up from the Springs a few days this week enjoying the water melon harvest.
